"Washington Interested In Its Political Situation."

"Opposition to Lorimcrism in the Reorganization."

"Movement Started to Carry State Next Year."

BY SUMNER CURTIS.

(By DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, July 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Illinois politics is receiving a fresh lot of attention in national administration circles. Administration leaders are interested both in the gubernatorial and senatorial candidates, in the nomination of the various state delegations to the convention, and in the other side of the Laramie-La Follette organization and the other by the Log Cabin organization, which is seeking revivification through the so-called Lincoln League. There is no anxiety over the Illinois endorsement of President Taft for re-election. The thing in mind is to give the State to the Republican party in November.

The party in Illinois along progressive lines as represented by members of the Legislature who inaugurated a scheme of "endorsement" several weeks ago and as represented by the local county organizations.

"Undoubtedly," replied the Alaskan Delegate, "I furnished him with evidence of other crimes. The Alaska Syndicate is an organized crime."

"Undoubtedly," replied the Alaskan Delegate, "I furnished him with evidence of other crimes. The Alaska Syndicate is an organized crime."

"Chairman Clayton inquired:

"Do you send the Attorney-General evidence enough, and indicate where witnesses could be found, to warrant your testimony?" asked Representative W. C. Norris.

"What do you mean by the Alaska Syndicate?" Chairman Clayton inquired.

IDENTIFIES PARTIES.

"Senator Guggenheim and his six brothers."

"Who is Graves?" asked Representative Graham of Illinois.

"He is a representative of the English capitalists."

"Captain Jarvis" added the delegate, "was the confidential agent of Morgan, in charge of the syndicate interests in Seneca. He committed suicide, following the introduction of this resolution you are considering. He knew this resolution would bring out the facts."

Douglas affidavit charges that when the War Department advertised for bids for coal to supply the Alaska military posts, Jarvis, treasurer of the Northwest Commercial Company, and his son, E. L. Jarvis, of the Seaman Coal Company, a rival of the syndicate, agreed to submit bids which would insure the award of the contract to one company or the other.

Further investigation was postponed by Captain Bullock, who did not know positively whether it was a lighthouse, a mast light, or a locomotive headlight. He also admitted that if he had reported his findings to the captain when he first saw the light, which was ten minutes before the ship struck, there would have been ample time to have escaped the beach. The testimony of both authorities clash.

FIGHTING FOR QUARTERS IN THE STATE CAPITOL.

(By A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ACRAMENTO, July 14.—The controversy between State Printer Shannon and Capitol Superintendent Radcliff over the removal of Shannon's office from three rooms on the second floor of the Capitol to a room and a half on the third floor has reached a climax. Mr. J. C. Webb has been asked for an opinion and until this opinion is given, matters are at a standstill.

Shannon stated today he did not propose to move until he has to. The object of the change is to give the new Board of Control additional room by giving them half of the room now occupied by the Comptroller of Public Instruction Hyatt, to give Hyatt's remaining room and a half to Shannon, and to give Hyatt's present office to the Board of Control.

Shannon takes the view that he is an elective officer and consequently should be shown more consideration than the Board of Control members, who are appointed by the governor.

Hyatt's present office has been assigned to him by Radcliff.

ONE CORSON LETTER.

"My Dear Captain—The enclosed account of the recent election has been submitted to me by him. I do not claim to have personal knowledge of all the items therein mentioned—necessarily I could not have such—but I do know that Mr. Morrissey was taking care of himself and the government in the interest of the United States vs. Hausey. I saw him take them into restaurants very many times. (It was generally rumored that he was the man who was to be the leader of the Progressive party, regardless of sectional affiliations.) It also will be emphasized that unless there is a concerted effort in opposition to the Lorraine, the latter will be likely to control the party organization in specific of the November election.

NOT MUCH FROM MERRILL.

It is problematical as to whether an amalgamation of the most recently selected progressive ideals will be effected whatever the get-together folk will think about it the national administration people—or most—do not expect any frank admission of the former's cause of United States vs. Hausey. I saw him take them into restaurants very many times. (It was generally rumored that he was the man who was to be the leader of the Progressive party, regardless of sectional affiliations.) It also will be emphasized that unless there is a concerted effort in opposition to the Lorraine, the latter will be likely to control the party organization in specific of the November election.

THE EXPENSE ACCOUNT.

The expense account submitted by Morrissey, dated May 6, 1908, contained, among others, the following entries:

"Occidental Cafe, for witnesses, $75.

"Alaska Grill, four witnesses, $195.

"Expense entertaining witnesses and jurymen, $200.

"Expense Valdes during grand jury

There were many other items of cash given to individuals such as Jimmy Kelley, J. E. O'Reilly, and others, and all amounting to $1223.40.

These documents and other evidence, Delegate Wickersham says, are in possession of the Attorney-General.

The resolution asking the Attorney-

General to disbar Radcliff will be reported to the House early next week.

FORMER MAYOR MAY DIE.

Probably fatally injured in San Diego accident in which wife died in her direct words to THE TIMES,

JAN JOSE (Calif.) July 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Charles J. Martin, former Mayor of this city was seriously and perhaps fatally injured this afternoon in a runaway accident in Blanchett Park, a suburb.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin were driving, when their horse became frightened and started to run. Both the couple were thrown from the carriage. Martin struck the curb on his head and side. Dangerous contusions about the head were sustained and a shoulder was fractured. One rib was broken and driven through the left lung. This injury is very serious and is giving his physician great concern.

Martin escaped almost without a scratch and was first to go to the aid of his husband. Martin is a retired San Jose merchant and was married to Mrs. Cora H. Cody, his present wife in Los Angeles, July 9, 1909. Mrs. Cody was a wealthy and socially prominent widow.

STRIKE RIOT IN SPAIN.

SARAGOZA (Spain) July 14.—Thirteen persons were injured last night in a street fight between police and bull guards in the streets of the city. The strike armed with revolvers attacked the police from different quarters and the war was thrown in a bitter struggle. The shop windows were closed and no newspapers appeared. A state of siege probably will be proclaimed.

the Attorney-General, stating that the statute of limitations had expired.

The correspondence, including the final letter of the Attorney-General, was read into the record.

Delegate Wickersham said that the Attorney-General now says that the statute of limitations had run against the prosecution of these men who committed perjury and defrauded the government.

EDIVELLE HELD UP.

"They submitted false affidavits to the government and committed fraud in April and May, 1908, and the statute of limitations did not expire until May, 1911. I sent all the evidence to the Attorney-General, and he said he failed and refused to prosecute these people for robbing the treasury, and he permitted the statute of limitations to run in their favor.

"I want the committee to have all the facts, so that it may know what the Attorney-General has done.

said Miss Blake. "They must learn the bitter results of military dominance so that our country may not sail so fast toward that condition as it has in the last ten years."

"How many people know that in this period of expansion for military purposes have increased 269 per cent? Congress can generously vote $20,000,000 annually a year and accordingly increase $15,000 to the contemplated research work. We can spend thousands on a sham battle at New York, yet have no funds to teach the children of the mountain regions. We stand seventh in percentage of illiteracy, and it is the native-born Americans, to a great extent, who drag us down in the scale of education."

American militarism is so powerful that 70 per cent. of all money spent annually by the national government is for war past or to come.

"The most important thing we have to do is to bring about a peace treaty."

"We have to go far toward bringing about world peace."

BOY KILLS A MINISTER.

While Hunting Blackbirds Washington Lad Attenuates Shoots Divine—Way Withhelds Verdict

His Answer Wins No Runaway

NORTH YAKIMA (Wash.) July 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Hunting blackbirds with a high-power, 22-caliber rifle, Eugene Kyer, a 15-year-old Seattle boy, accidentally killed the Rev. Orville Davis, formerly of Tacoma, in the latter's orchard, near Grandview. The boy had been hunting to use up his inheritance, which he received from his father, and was interested in entering the orchard.

The small bullet entered in the back of the minister's neck and diverted by the spinal column, lodged in the base of his brain. He died immediately.

Astonished by the dire news, the Rev. Davis, who was a member of the church in which the boy was born, was not surprised.

"The boy was a good boy, but he would be compelled to defend himself in court."

MILITIA WILL BE TAUGHT.

(By DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO, July 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Adm.-Gen. Forbes today issued orders for the annual inspection of the State of the State, militia at the Presidio, San Francisco. The camp will be in operation from tomorrow until July 22. The coast artillery will be in command of the inspection in the event of the big defense guns and also in actual defense. It is believed the camp will be larger than ever before.

SHIP MASTER OFFENDS INDIAN WOMAN IN ST. MICHAEL'S.

HITS HIM IN THE FACE WITH A PEG. Sheriff of Pierce County, Wash., Captures Man Believed to Have Stolen Axe With Ax Monday.

(By A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

TACOMA, July 14.—Swan Peterson, 21, wanted in connection with the double murder at Rainier last Monday night, in which Archie Coble and his wife were killed with an ax, is in the Pierce County Jail tonight.

Sheriff Longmire of this county and Deputy Stevens this afternoon found Peterson in the kitchen of a subcar where he was waiting to be taken for Payupulay. Peterson made no attempt to deny his identity, but disclaims any knowledge of the Rainier murders.

He explains his leaving Bremerton after working a day and a half without waiting to collect his pay, by saying he had to pay off debts of $2,000 to $2,250 and his boat bill was $2.65, so he concluded to leave and let his landlord collect the wages. Peterson came to Rainier from Port Townsend.

Suspicion was directed to Peterson by the report that blood stains were found on the bed clothes of the room in which he was staying at Rainier.

Peterson, who was a member of the Associated Oil Tanker, arrived here yesterday, when he took a snap shot of a picturesque old squaw at St. Michael's while the steamer was discharging oil.

He had been released.

(By DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

PORTLAND (Or.) July 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—A resounding slap in the face that almost knocked him off his feet was one of the results achieved by Capt. George Bridgett, master of the Associated oil tanker Asuncion, arriving here yesterday, when he took a snap shot of a picture of an old squaw at St. Michael's while the steamer was discharging oil.

Capt. Bridgett, who is a friend of the Indian woman he hit, said Capt. Bridgett, rubbing his bruised face tearfully, "but from the way it feels it must have been pig iron or bricks."

The letters were introduced to show the condition of affairs under Principal Kelton. The names of the writers were suppressed by agreement of both sides.

Warren Oney, Jr., counsel for Kelton, deplored on the grounds that most of the letters contained errors.

According to a statement issued to the school, the letters contained errors.

SHOWERS WITH GIFTS.

Spokane Citizen Asks the Police to Hand Out Who Is Displaying the Undesirable Generosity.

(By DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SPOKANE (Wash.) July 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—D. McLaughlin, a prominent resident, for seven months the victim of a strange scheme of unknown enemies, with wild dozens of secret tributes, family bashes, gifts worth hundreds of dollars, expensive groceries and candy have been devered to him and charged to other persons, has asked the police to investigate.

Fathers, confectioners and grocers who sent the goods declare they were ordered over the telephone by persons identifying themselves with well-known citizens to whom bills were sent. The latter parties have all refused payment, saying they know nothing of the orders.

Mrs. McLaughlin declares the house has been filled with flowers and sweetmeats all winter in the same mysterious way and that a few days ago one delicatessen sent enough sandwiches, pastry and canned goods for a large Sunday-school picnic. The case puzzles the authorities, the McLaughlins being unable to give clews.

Frauds in STATE WARRANTS.

Oklahoma Treasurer Looking Sharp to Prevent Payment of Vouchers Cleverly Tampered With.

(By DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

OKLAHOMA CITY (Okla.) July 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Another fraudulent State warrant for $1000 was discovered Friday by the State Auditor's office and indications were found of the issuance of still another, although that cannot be said positively to be fraudulent until the warrant is presented.

The warrant number was 1115 and the stub, filled out to correspond with the warrant, was later marked "cancelled."

One entire page of the warrant book, containing numbers 1145 to 1148 inclusive, was then cut out and the notation made on the stub of the opposite page of stubs that leaf had been left in the book. The figures of warrant number 1145 were deleted by the use of ink.

In the figure 4 was covered, and the blank warrant was attached to the stub of No. 1115 and also marked "cancelled."

An additional warrant was made every week and presented for payment from now on, under the Treasurer's calls, will be taken to the Auditor's office and checked with the records to see if its genuineness before paying it.

Auditor Leo Meyer found strong indications in the records of his office Friday of the duplication of another $1000 warrant against the A. & M. College, which apparently issued in much the same way.

"In other instances," declared Judge Slater, "the signatures are signed as high as half a dozen times. In each instance they appeared to be signed by the same hand."

Parkison was formerly editor of a local labor newspaper. He made public charges three weeks ago that President Campbell of the university had offered him a bribe of $1500 to withdraw his referendum petition.

PORTLAND (Or.) July 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—"The visit to the new wire service conducted over the same wire as the telegraph service, and the wire is used for both purposes at the same time. To test the new service, Assistant Manager W. T. Sebelle of the Portland Telegraph Company, invited some newsmen friends to discuss the day's doings in Reno over the wire. What little gossip from Reno there was came over the wire as if Reno were a suburb of San Francisco. This illustrates the fact that press market reports and telegrams of all kinds were coming over the same wire. The service is conducted over a special copper wire which connects the two cities. This is the only service which extends as far East as Salt Lake. The Postal Telegraph Company is planning to place booths in all of its local branch offices, so that the demand for the service can be well taken care of.

QUIET IN RENO.

(By DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—The atmosphere is quiet in the town of Reno today. This is not a very startling announcement, nor is it a valuable news item, but the way the information was obtained is remarkable. The Postal Telegraph Company has established a new telephone service between this city, Sacramento, Redding and Salt Lake. The service is conducted over the same wire as the telegraph service, and the wire is used for both purposes at the same time. To test the new service, Assistant Manager W. T. SHOT FOR A DEER.

(HUNTING MISCHAP.)

WILMINGTON, July 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Taken for a deer, Minn. J. Maynard, a well-known resident of this city, was shot and dangerously injured early this morning by his hunting companion, Henry A. Thun, thirty-five miles west of here. Maynard was brought to this city this morning. Maynard is 65 years of age, and an old man is 21, and was standing around the mountain passes when he became confused and Thun, thinking he saw a deer moving in the bushes a short distance away, shot twice. When Maynard went to the spot to stick his deer he found his comrade bleeding from two wounds and calling for help.

IS FINDINGS KEEPINGS?

(SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Mrs. J. W. Frank of Alameda, while on her way to San Francisco from Tacoma, this morning, was attacked by a burglar in a large basket in one of the seats of the train. When the crying continued Mrs. Frank opened the basket and found a three month old baby girl, evidently deserted by mother, who was brought to San Francisco where steps are being taken to locate the parents.

Sixty-second Congress.

PRETTY SLATE ALL ARRANGED.Senate Agrees to Date of Vote Upon Reciprocity.Other Measures Named in One-Two-Three Order.Democrats and Insurgent May Yet Spoil Plans.(By A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, July 14.—The Senate will vote on the Canadian reciprocity bill July 22, on the floor, probably, but J. W. Deneen, the free list bill, August 1. Congressional re-apportionment bill August 3. Statehood bill for Arizona and New Mexico on the legislative day of August 7, and will adjourn, according to a general understanding, quickly thereafter.This programme, decided upon after a prolonged conference today, and resulting from conferences which have covered many days, was agreed to by the Senate. The agreement contained no specific date for the adjournment, although the measures mentioned have passed the House.President Taft was quickly acquainted with the Senate's action and expressed his gratification, particularly over the precedence given the reciprocity bill.INSURGENT OPINION.Senator Cummins of Iowa, insurgen, after adjournment today expressed conviction that despite the programme there would be general tax relief before the close of the session. He based his belief on the fact that Democrats and insurgents would stand together and force amendments to the free list bill adding wool, sugar, steel, cotton, etc., to that measure.No agreement was reached on the campaign publicity bill. Senator Penrose, Republican leader, announced that it had been found impossible to include the details of the measure in more subjects than those named. Senator Marin, Democratic leader, assured Senator Kenyon, Republican insurgent, that the Democrats would make every effort to secure a vote on the publicity measure which would require publicity of campaign funds before election.DIRECT ELECTION.Senator Borah is determined to press the joint resolution providing for the election of senators by direct vote, and will have no chance to bring about an agreement between the conferees on that measure. He has no notion then, and they have agreed to have a technical meeting within the next day or two.The Bristow amendment to the Canadian reciprocity bill, proposing a reduction of the sugar tariff and the abolition of the "Duluth Standard" basis of assessing tariff on imported sugar, was defeated this afternoon, thirty-eight to eight, after Senator Bristow had made an exhaustive speech on the subject.STEEL AMENDMENT.Senator Cummins introduced additional amendments to the bill, one providing for a reduction of the duty on steel, beams, girders and like products and for a reduction of duty on oilcloth and linoleum.With the fate of reciprocity predetermined in favor of that measure, Senators already are speaking on the possible result of the promised vote on the two tariff bills—wool and free list—included in today's agreement. No one would undertake to predict the outcome, but all agree in the success of the measure depends entirely upon whether the Democrats and insurgents can get together.MAY STRING IT OUT.It has been intimated that if Congress should pass and the President veto the wool and free list bills the Democrats would insist upon the continuation of the joint committee of investigation. The Republican leaders fear no such result, however, because they say the Democratic Senators are quite anxious to end the session as far as the Republicans can.THE STEPHENSON CASE.Senate Committee Is Too Busy With Lorimer to Look Into Election of Wisconsin Man.(By A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, July 14.—Unless the session of Congress should be far more protracted than now appears probable, no final action will be taken on the request for an investigation of the election of Senator Stephenson of Wisconsin until next winter.The Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections considers itself about the business organization in Washington. About eight of the fifteen members are in the city during seven hours a day on the Lorimer investigation, while other members are taking part in the reciprocity debate. Under these circumstances none of the committee has yet read the two volumes of testimony taken by commissioners of the Wisconsin election which were referred to the Privileges and Elections Committee as the basis for the request for an investigation of the Wisconsin Senator.Senate Republicans mean to make a motion of his committee with a view to appointing a special committee to report on a course of action at the opening of the regular session in December.CORPS OF AERONAUTS.ARMY IS ASSEMBLING ONE.(By A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, July 14.—The United States army is gradually building its corps of aeronauts. Lieut. Frank M. Trouble Brewing Among the Troops at Cananea, Mex.

Promises of Pay Solve Things for the Time Being.

Juan Cabral Takes Command; Quiet Last Night.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CANANEAS (Mexico), July 14.—Following a midnight conference last night, the 250-men of the garrison here at 10 o'clock this morning waited on the Federal officials of this district with a demand for the immediate payment of their wages, which has been in arrears for some time.

The men were quelled by Prefect General Gómez, who promised to take up the matter at once with higher officials at Hermosillo, the State capital. The soldiers were told that they would receive twenty-five pesos each, or forty pesos to those who surrendered their horses and rifles.

During the disorder last night, a captain and his men disarmed the civilian police of the town, and later the rebels have received from General Hermosillo regarding the arrest of the son of Gen. Lorenzo Torres and two others on charges of fermenting another revolution.

(ARRESTED MEN RELEASED.) DOLGUOLSK (Asia), July 14.—Four members of the "Gendarmes Fiscal," arrested in Agua Prieta on their way to Cabullion to take charge of the customhouse there, have been released from prison. They will not be allowed to proceed to Cabullion, however. Capt. Herrera, in command of the period at Agua Prieta, informed the men that their release to take charge of that customhouse would mean their summary arrest, military trial and subsequent execution.

The situation is destined to be the outbreak of discontent on the part of appointed of the provisional government at the ideal of the former office-holders being allowed to retain their posts and thus practically dictate to the men who fought for the liberty of their country.

The conservative element of Agua Prieta hopes that they will be able to obtain the representations of the two regimes, but are fearful of further difficulties arising and possibly bloodshed.

DAIRY GIRL CARRIES GERMS.

Two Deaths and Thirty-One Cases of Typhoid Traced to Contact With Chicago Employee.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CHICAGO, July 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Two persons are dead one is dying and thirty are ill in one district in Englewood as the result of using milk infected with typhoid fever bacilli. This was disclosed today by the health department.

The prevalence of typhoid cases in the Englewood district caused the alarm of the health department two weeks ago. Investigation showed that most of the families affected received their milk from one dairy. Further investigation showed that Rose Boerama, an employee of this dairy, was the medium of transmission.

Miss Boerama is apparently in good health, but there has been typhoid fever in the Boerama family since 1895, when the girl was taken ill.

MARK TWAIN'S WEALTH.

Noted Author Left an Estate that Will Total Nearly Half a Million Dollars.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, July 14.—Mark Twain left actual property worth $471,126. An appraisal of his estate today places this value on securities and real estate bequeathed to his only surviving child, Mrs. Gabrilwitch, when he died on April 21, 1919.

Mr. Clemens left no real estate in New York. The value of his personal estate here was $286,756. This does not include a trunk full of manuscripts, the value of which is not specified in the appraisal. The largest item in the schedule is fifty shares of the Mark Twain Company, valued at $10,000. The author's residence in Connecticut, where he owned an estate at Redding, the place of his death, is valued at $174,280. Outside of the real estate, it consists of mining, industrial and railroad stocks. The bonds and house at Redding are valued at $2000.

A relief of the author's many unprofitable business ventures is a schedule of debts to several corporations, noted as "one value." The will was made in Connecticut on August 7, 1909.

MUST GO TO ARGENTINE.

Otherwise Armour Says the Americans Will Run Out of Beef For the Export Trade.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, July 14.—American beef packers must go to Argentina for their product, says J. Ogden Armour, if they wish to retain their hold on the exportation of beef. Mr. Armour arrived today from Europe.

"The United States no longer afford to export beef," he said, "for it is all needed to supply the home demand. This has been the condition for some time and it is more forcible than ever." The American packer every day "finds it difficult to demand from Germany and England for demanded meats and Argentine offers the simplest solution."

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES

Pasadena.

JUSTICE DIES
IN HIS OFFICE.Judge Klamroth Called With
Harsh Suddenness.Pasadena's Splendid Citizen
Succumbs to Tuberculosis.Counterfeit Coin Is Current
About the City.

James of the Times, 38 Raymond avenue, PASADENA, July 15.—Apparently in better health than usual, and only a few hours after he had dined, could, and a few minutes after lightly talking with friends about the hot weather, Justice of the Peace Henry H. Klamroth died of a hemorrhage of the lungs in his office, No. 29 East Colorado street, at 11 o'clock yesterday forenoon.

He was suddenly seized with a coughing spell and called to his stewardship, Mrs. Magno Jackson. In the service room he brought him a glass of water. She did not notice at his appearance, went to her telephone and summoned Dr. F. C. E. Mattison. The doctor arrived before ten minutes had passed, but was unable to do anything for his patient, who expired a short time afterward. Judge Klamroth had long been a sufferer from tuberculosis. He was 41 years of age.

The news soon spread about the city and many were shocked with grief over the sudden death of their friend's death. He had been in exceptionally good spirits throughout the morning; had heard a civil case and then gone out and bought a new suit of clothes.

Coroner Hartwell, a staunch friend of the deceased, called at his office to visit him just in time to take charge of his body, which was taken to the mortuary rooms of Tufts & Stevens. It will be removed to the family residence, at No. 513 South Euclid avenue.

Judge Klamroth leaves a widow and three daughters, under 12 years of age. A brother, a retired grand opera singer, is known by the stage name of "Ricardo Martin."

Judge Klamroth was born in New York in 1870. He received his education there at Columbia University. After graduation he came to Pasadena and established a practice in the city. He was elected Justice of the Peace twelve years ago and since that time has held the office continuing having been re-elected at each election.

He has been an active worker in reform and is well known for his charities. He worked hard and enthusiastically for the welfare of the community, and his judgment the "blind pig" have been dealt blows time and again, until he came to be looked upon by Dist.-Atty. Fredericks as leader of this work in the city.

It was largely through his efforts that the Chino branch of the George Junior Republic was established.

Mooney was a friend of the boy from first to last and died here in operation with Judge Wilbur of the Los Angeles county Juvenile Court in this work, with which so few are able to successfully cope.

For two years past he was secretary of the Pasadena Hospital and was at the time of his death a director of that institution. He also held the secretarieship of the Pasadena Board of Fire Underwriters. He was a member of the Odd Lodge, F. & A. M., and of the Loyal Order of Moose. He was a Christian Scientist and a musician of marked ability.

The funeral service will be held at the house Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Justice Klamroth made a request on his deathbed that there be no offerings of flowers, and this wish will be complied with.

BALD MONEY.

Bad money was in the city in the last few days has caused bankers and others to be on the lookout for counterfeits. Lead dollars and half-dollars and five-dollar gold pieces, which look genuine enough, but are only about half weight, have been discovered.

A counterfeit dollar was passed on the Union National Bank several days ago. It was held to the light. The men on the teller, with a number of good dollars, which he counted out three at a time. Later he happened to pick it up by itself and, at once, saw that it was not gold. It was the date of 1902, and is made of some soft metal, in which the bank teller had no difficulty in carving the word "Bad" with a sharp point of steel. He does not know what it was received, the dollar from.

AGED WOMAN FOUND DEAD.

While Husband Was in Vermont,
Long Beach Resident Succumbs to Heart Failure.

LONG BEACH, July 14.—Fully undressed and lying partly on the bed and floor, the dead body of Mrs. W. R. Farrington was found late this afternoon at her home, No. 723 East Ocean Avenue, where the condition of the body death had occurred three or four days ago, and was undoubtedly due to heart failure.

Mrs. Farrington was the wife of W. R. Farrington, a retired Vermont capitalist, and was over 80 years of age. Four weeks ago, Mr. Farrington left for a trip to Rutland, Vt., intending to be absent six weeks. Although in good health, Mr. Farrington feared the fatigue of the long railroad journey and remained at home alone, save for the occasional visits of Mrs. R. M. Davis, a neighbor.

For the past two days Mrs. Davis, however, had seen nothing of the old lady, and, calling today and being alarmed, she became alarmed, and, calling her husband, gained entrance with a skeleton key when the dead body was found. Two unopened letters from Vermont and a telegram from her son were found in the mail box, bearing Long Beach postmarks of July 12.

Word was sent the Coroner and the husband and wife telegrams of the same day. The Farnsworths have lived in Long Beach for several years and are well to do financially. So far as known they have no relatives in this part of the country.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

Members of the Water Committee of the Board of Trade, and Mayor Thum met last night at the Board of Trade rooms and for over three hours discussed the water situation. The meeting was an executive session of the committee and members would not disclose the discussions except to say that nothing definite had been determined upon and that there will probably soon be an open meeting.

"We accomplished nothing definite tonight," said Mayor Thum. "It is probable that we will soon begin holding open meetings for the purpose of discussing the subject."

NEWS BREVITIES.

This is due to the result of daily eating. Calmico spaghetti, which the chef is an adept at preparing in many tempting ways, and which is an exceptionally satisfying meal.

STUDYING OIL HERE.

Distinguished Hungarians Arrive in Los Angeles on a Tour of the American Petroleum Fields.

Two Hungarian representatives of capital approximated at $30,000,000 arrived at the Alexandria yesterday afternoon in company with one American. They are Dr. G. Bernard, Mayor of Marosvassary, or, "The Royal Free City" of Hungary, and Prof. Y. Pfeiffer, a chemical engineer and professor in the Polytechnic University of Budapest. The American was S. Hayman, civil engineer and mining engineer of New York City.

The party has just come from an inspection of the Oklahoma oil and gas fields, and has already made an inspection of the Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia natural gas fields for the purpose of ascertaining the best methods of handling the fuel products.

According to Dr. Bernard, Hungary, until two years ago, was practically without any natural gas. While drilling for a well in one of the districts for a friend, he found a gas seepage was discovered, and soon oil drillers encountered a vast flow of the product. There was so much of it that they had to use it in a commercial way, as it once formulated by a company of the wealthiest men in Budapest.

In Hungary, said Dr. Bernard, oil is a very important factor to the government, no matter what may be, and no one has the right or mining for fuel, precious metals or oil without paying tribute to the government through leases. Soon as the natural gas flow was discovered, a company was formed and the leases taken from the government.

The Public Service: City Hall and Courts.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

For harbor improvements the Board of Public Works yesterday asked $12,000 out of the bond money for the next twelve months; water-front rights will be given to the city.

John Lapine, who has frequently endeavored to win a fortune through the courts, yesterday filed suit for $3,000 damages against jurists, lawyers and officials, alleging malfeasance and conspiracy.

The trial of John Crosley, an ex-con, who is charged with the murder of Patrolman Arthur B. Crusey, was begun in Judge Willis's court yesterday.

Fred L. Ford, a former member of the City Council, announced in court yesterday that he had decided to contest his wife's suit for divorce.

At the City Hall.

A SKLARGE SUM FOR THE HARBOR

JOKE THAN A MILLION FOR THE YEAR'S IMPROVEMENTS.

Major Part for Condensing Land for Water-front Highway to Be Main Artery of Port Commerce. Street Improvements in Wilmington to Keep Consolidation Pledges.

Harbor improvements to cost $1,000,000 are to be made within the next twelve months according to a report made to the Board of Public Works by the Harbor Activities yesterday. The report was approved and transmitted to the Council for its action.

This amount is to be the result of sale of a part of the harbor bond issue of three millions. About two-thirds of the sum asked by the harbor board will be needed to complete land and street improvements on the boulevard, which is to lead along the water front to the Huntington concession, now owned by the city, opposite Man's Island, around the outer harbor to the waterfront. It is to be a main artery of port business and will connect with the county roads from the north.

The remainder of the $1,000,000 will be used for dredging and the preliminary improvement of the Huntington concession, although the definite plans are not divided. City Engineer Vincent and E. J. Vincent, architect, in their report to the works yesterday declined to say for what purpose the money is to be spent, but other officials say it is mainly for dredging.

Plans for the improvement of the Huntington concession have been made by Engineer Vincent but they have not been finalized by the Board of Public Works. It is the intention of the Public Works to have attention to fill the submerged area and construct docks and warehouses though the main construction work will be done by contractors.

The requisition for funds was made a order that the Council Budget Committee may make provision for the sinking fund levy and the interest on the bonds.

The Advisory Committee also reported the improvements at Wilmington on that they are to be made as a part of the consolidation of the land and water front pledges and for which budget appropriation is asked. It is proposed to pave with asphalt to a width of eight feet between Second and First streets, between Sixth street and the water front. The Fries street improvement will lead directly to the new municipal dock at Wilmington Harbor.

Other streets to be improved (the character of improvement is not stated) are J Street between Western and Pirat, between Second and First streets, and End street and First street from J to Vermont, continuing south from this point along the county road to a line in the center of the turning basin.

NEW HAWAII MAP.

MEANS MORE WATER.

A new map of the Hawiwe reservoir has been prepared by the aqueduct office of Public Works, and if it is accepted by the Interior Department at Washington, will make possible an enlargement of this great water supply of the aqueduct.

The new map will describe boundaries practically the same as those approved by the United States government in 1907, with the exception that it will make possible an increase in the depth of the water ten feet, such an addition would add about 4,000 acre feet to the Hawiwe reservoir capacity.

Chief Engineer Mulholland says it is not the purpose to make such a map, and that the filling of the map is to insure the city in, in the future, necessity for increasing the dam.

The agents of the insurance company that the title was in the music hall, tested the water and found that it was not possible to liquidate, as he would have been able to collect from the insurance company if an agent of Birkel had not interfered.

According to his testimony, he was not asked to make an affidavit that the piano was his. One Birkel, an agent of the insurance company that the title was in the music hall, tested the water and found that it was not possible to liquidate, as he would have been able to collect from the insurance company if an agent of Birkel had not interfered.

BIGGEST FLOW IN THE VALLEY

BANNER DELIVERY OF WATER MADE WEDNESDAY:

California Development Company, Under Its Receiver, Turned Over to the Various Mutual Water Companies on that Day a Great Quantity of Liquid for Irrigation.

The California Development Company, under W. H. Holabird as receiver, made on Wednesday, to the various mutual water companies, the largest amount ever turned over to a capital Valley. This water totaled 1562.04 second foot, deducting 147.09 used by the Holton Power Company and 50.01 delivered in Mexico, and $1.50 for waste water out of Nos. 4 and 8, leaving a remainder of 1304.36 second feet.

Making further deduction of account of seepage and evaporation which has been the rule in the valley, the net remainder is 1252.38 second foot, which equals $2,250.00 in inches per day. This does not include the water delivered to the Holton Power Company for power purposes, which amounted to 157.09 second feet.

One year has elapsed since there has been any shortage of water in Imperial Valley, an unheard of experience in its history, unless it be charged that there was a shortage in the delivery to Imperial Water Company No. 8, which did not file a receiver states, to unwillingness to pay bills for water delivered and his refusal to keep the ditched clean up the district paid its debts, so that he had the money to perform the work.

Imperial Valley has never enjoyed such a period of prosperity as it is enjoying at the moment. The delivery of water under the receiver is made under the direction of J. C. Allison, who has been made chief engineer. Allison is a young man who has been with the state water company ever since the first dirt was moved.

One hydraulic dredge, owned by the company, completed recently, the Imperial, is in operation below the concrete heading on the Colorado River, doing efficient work. A small hydraulite dredge is being completed, having been built by the receiver out of material on hand, using an old barge for the hull and assembling and other machinery that was in stock at that time.

A third dredge is being built at Stockton for the receiver and is to be shipped August 1. This will operate on the main canals in the valley, which are sadly in need of excavation, the bottom of the canals having risen by deposition of silt, making necessary the raising of the banks of the canals to carry sufficient water.

No dredge has ever been available for this work, and the receiver, until at Stockton will probably keep constantly in commission for one year at least. Its first work will be at the mile 10.5 on the Colorado River, at the mouth of the Aliso and Alamitos canals in Mexico. It will relieve these canals of all before proceeding to deepen and enlarge the capacity of all the main canals under the receiver's charge.

The expense of operation and mantance has been enormously reduced as compared with that of the corporation prior to the receivership.

ANTIS EXPLAIN IT.

Cardinal Moran Did Not Recommend That Women Vote Except Specifically.

The Cardinal Moran was misquoted in regard to his attitude toward women suffrage in a speech recently made by Rev. Joseph Gleason was the statement made yesterday by Mrs. Adeline Cook, former secretary of the Southern California Association opposed to women's suffrage.

"We are in receipt of information which explains the statement," said Mrs. Cook. "A school question arose into which a certain amount of religious bigotry had been woven. The Catholic women were opposed to voting. Cardinal Moran, in his speech, voted merely to put an end to the controversy. Cardinal Moran is not and never has been an advocate of political equality. The suffragists of San Francisco have the right to ignore him." A letter in which Archbishop Riordan insists that suffrage is purely a political question."

L. C. Johnson of Denver said yesterday that the women of the same city, Denver, never vote unless some special inducement is brought to bear on them. Out of 423 women whom he has caused to be interviewed on the subject, only twelve thought that woman suffrage had really helped Colorado.

THEY OBJECT TO HIM.

A petition bearing the signatures of sixteen residents of the neighborhood, No. 827 South Spring Street was yesterday filed with the Chief of Police, protesting against a stable and corral stated to be maintained at the address and which is objection to "loud and unusual noises" which the petition says emanate from that place. Fred H. Cady, addressed as the owner, is asked to eject the present tenant from the premises.

SUFFRAGISTS' NEW MACHINE.

Central Committee Will Handle All Business of the Votes-for-Women Campaign in Southern California.

At a meeting of delegates from the many women suffrage societies of the city, Choral Hall, yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Seward A. Simons, president of the Political Equality League, appointed a committee of nine women to devise plans to be followed by the Southern California Central Suffrage Committee, an organization which will be formed in Choral Hall Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

The committee, composed of Mrs. John H. Hayes, Mrs. Francis Noel, Mrs. Mary Cora Lewis, Mrs. Force Parker, Mrs. George Drake Ruddy, Dr. Laura Locke, Mrs. G. Stickney, Mrs. Marie Garbus, and Mrs. Loy Galpin. The members of the new organization will consist of the president and one or two members of each woman suffrage club in Los Angeles, and will be presided over by Mrs. Simons.

This body of women will be the medium through which all the business of the campaign in this part of the State will be transacted, and it is to be noted that the work on a systematic basis.

Tea was served at the meeting yesterday and it was announced that the meeting of suffrage tea, will begin Wednesday.

Choral Hall this afternoon Burr McIntosh will be the principal speaker.

of the afternoon were about forty little maid-s half of them dressed as girls, who were all dressed in costumes to be old French colonials. The children sang and danced the minuet.

Accompanied by the Schoneman-Hancock band orchestra, "The Star Spangled Banner" was sung by Mrs. Gonzales, and "La Marseillaise" by Frank Roques. A brief address in French was made by Louis Sentous, Jr., French Consular agent, who introduced the speaker.

The Mayor interjected a few remarks about politics into an address that concerned also the subject of liberty of the French people. He compared political conditions in America with those of the French regime of terror, by declaring that while political offenders are no longer imprisoned they are ousted from office, which is, if anything, worse than the old method.

Following the Mayor, addresses were made by Gen. Prescott and Hector Alliot, the latter speaking in French.

There came races in front of the theater, in which almost everyone who participated won some kind of a prize. The first sack race for boys was won by Ernest Mernard. The second race for girls was won by J. T. Chidley, who divided his prize, a box of cigars, among those whom he defeated. The next contest was the fat-man's race. The French people called it "corse des hommes gras," but those who come not real French discovered that a fat-man's race by any other name is just as big a treat. The race was won by Joe Broquet, the thinnest of that fat crew.

Following the races, a break for the lakeside to watch theloner. One young Frenchman asked if she was the same "Lady of Lyons" he had heard about. After the horse race, there were more contests for the children and more speaking and singing. At night a grand ball was held and a brilliant display of fireworks ended the affair.

The following morning at 11 o'clock.

HE'S A STAYER.
President Taft has declared that he can stay in Washington as long as Congress can. Some people would call this a game of "freeze-out," in spite of the hot weather.

AN EXPERT'S VIEW.
The testimony of Gov. Dunne in relation to the "jack-pot" legislation in Illinois shows a familiarity with the business that could only come to a man who had been dealt a hand.

PITY THE STATESMAN.
It must be hard for members of Congress to remain at their posts during the hot weather in Washington. The other day a member of the Senate was five minutes late in reaching the chamber and he missed the session entirely.

OH, HO!
And now they say that a reconciliation will take place between Ethel Barrymore and her recent spouse. Oh, well, that is just like a woman! And the ethereal Ethel did not need the advertising, either.

THE WANDERERS.
Every day now some wanderer returns from a mountain trail or a stretch of the sea with tales of wonder to keep warm heart and to store his soul with memories. The only fellow that misses it is the one who spends his vacation outside of California.

A STRANGE SUMMER.
This is proving to be one of the strangest summers ever known in at least two respects. As far as can be learned no drownings have as yet been charged up to the rock-the-boat idea, and not a baseball umpire has been killed, even in the bush leagues.

FOREST FIRES.
Three towns obliterated in Canada by the forest fires, over 100 dead, with the loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of property, such as the fearful toll of the current holocaust. And the worst of it all is that so far there does not appear to be any way of preventing these awful disasters.

REVIVING PAGEANTRY.
The pageant at Pasadena and the coming pageant at San Diego, lead us to hope that California is entering upon an era of that kind of celebration. The more we have of it the better. A pageant makes the best kind of a show from every point of view.

A POOR CHANCE.
An eastern editor declares that if the Republicans nominate La Follette for President, Woodrow Wilson will be placed in the White House. If this is to be the contingency upon which Wilson depends, we must say that he stands a mighty poor chance to succeed George Washington.

GOOD-BY, SEE.
The conviction of Evelyn Arthur See, apostle and big-link of the "Absolute Life" fake, by a Chicago jury means that the coming week of pageantry at San Diego will be well worth while. The occasion will celebrate the breaking of ground for the Panama-California Exposition of 1915. Preparations that have been projected on a large and elaborate scale are now reported as completed and the big show stands ready to get into motion at the end of the gong.

THE FIGHT IS ON.
That Senator La Follette is in the field for the Presidential nomination is evidenced by his bitter attack on President Taft. His speech in the Senate places the Wisconsin man in no new light... It has been known for months that he was fighting to get into the fight. Now that he is in, the friends of President Taft will see to it that the braggart is put to the political word.

GIVE THE COLONEL THE FLOOR.
The statement of former Assistant Atty.-Gen. Purdy that he had the evidence against the sugar corporation that has since been used in the cases against them, which he presented to Atty.-Gen. Bogardus, but for some reason there was no attempt on the part of the Roosevelt administration to prosecute the offenders, is interesting. Perhaps Col. Roosevelt can tell us "why."

JUDGE BREEDEN.
The Times notices the appointment of Judge Breeden of Ocean Park as a Justice of the Supreme Court at Panama. No better selection could have been made. Judge Breeden was formerly Attorney-General of Utah. He is a jurist of ability and experience and a old-time Republican. The Times regrets to lose him from Los Angeles and congratulates Panama upon its acquisition.

WOMAN'S SUPREME RIGHT.
The one fundamental and unanswerable argument against woman suffrage is that it runs counter to "woman's rights," or rather her supreme right.

Nature has given woman the worst of it in many respects. In America, at least, man has been disposed to give her the best and easiest of it—to spare her as much as possible.

The most-to-be-valued right which woman now enjoys is THE RIGHT NOT TO VOTE, the right not to carry the civic burdens borne by men. The Times is opposed to depriving her of this right. That is all.

And The Times believes that a large majority of the women of California would prefer not to be deprived of this best of all their rights.

VICIOUS LA FOLLETTE.
La Follette is making a desperate, unscrupulous and discreditable fight for a Presidential nomination. His method is not to seek success upon his own alleged merits—though he is not unaccustomed to vaunt them—but upon what he asserts to be the demerits or, as he states it, the crimes of commission and omission of William Howard Taft.

La Follette resembles nothing so much as a lunatic trying to bespatter a star with mud. The attitude of the California insurgents in the contest is somewhat complicated, from the fact that their orators and newspaper organs have enthusiastically supported the reciprocity policy of President Taft—principally because The Times opposed it, while La Follette, after whiffing and whimpering for months, now makes hostility to reciprocity the main theme of his diatribe against the President.

Again, the insurgent press of California supports Pinchot's conservation and favors withdrawal of Alaska coal lands from development, although the direct result of such conservation would be to perpetuate the high price of coal to California consumers—this also because The Times opposes such conservation. But La Follette opposes conservation and makes no one of the counts of his indictment of the President the allegation that Taft has favored Pinchot's conservation and is aiding the Guggenheims in a campaign of "bad faith and treachery of the highest interest," the object of which is to indefinitely lock up the natural fuel supply of the Pacific Coast. In order to be in harmony with La Follette on these two points the Express will be obliged to turn squarely around in its tracks, oppose that which it has favored and favor that which it opposed. Doubtless it will in due time execute this flop.

La Follette bitterly denounces the President for having refused to bow his head and cry hosannas to Roosevelt. The President, in speaking of Roosevelt, only called him "my illustrious predecessor," when he should have added the words—"the statesman, on whose inspired lips Emperors and Kings have hung, and the hunter at the mention of whose great name bears and lions and tigers have skidded," the beloved disciple of Gompers, the great I-Am while others are merely You-Are-Not-of Our Politics.

The Wisconsin demagogue berates President Taft for having signed the Payne-Aldrich bill and for having favored the Republican doctrine of protection to home industries, when, according to La Follette, he should have flopped, as La Follette has done, and favored, as La Follette does, the Democratic doctrine of "tariff for revenue only."

La Follette denounces the tariff views of the President as a betrayal of the platform on which he was elected, and as "cruelly unjust" to "25,000,000 people engaged in dependent upon agriculture."

It may be that the influences and the trickery which in August last enabled Lissner and his coadjutors to manipulate a minority of the Republican party, so as to nominate Johnson, elect Works, seat an insurgent coterie on the back of the elephant, and load all the fads of populism upon the Republican platform will again prevail, in which event the California delegation to the Republican National Convention will misrepresent and dishonor the State by voting for the time-serving tricky La Follette.

And it may be that Reason will resume her throne; that a majority of the Republicans of California will snatch the reins from the hands of the self-appointed bosses of insurgency, and so far as this State is concerned, will send Robert La Follette and his Cabinet, consisting of Gompers, Ligener, Tavelmo and Tobias Earl, back out of the limelight in which they are strutting, and back to the mephitic obscurity from whence they emerged.

THE INSURGENT SLUMP.
According to a recent decision of the California Secretary of State, a corporation has more lives than a cat. A feline has only nine lives and by trying ten times you can put Tom o'Tabby out of existence. But a corporation is—for the purposes of taxation—anextinguishable. It will "fountain in immortal youth unburnt amid the wreck of matter and the crash of worlds." The old Presbyterian dogma of "Once in grace always in grace" applies to corporations. The command of the government to a newly-created corporation under the laws of California is "Ah there—stay there."

The Times has in mind a corporation that was created in this State a year ago to work promising mining claims. It was capitalized at a modest sum. Its stock was distributed among the owners of the claims in exchange for deeds for their interests. Corporation papers were perfected and the office of the Secretary of State received $320, contributed by the hopeful stockholders. It had a board of directors, a president, a secretary, a treasurer, a nicely-furnished office and a gilt sign. Stock was donated by the stockholders as "treasury stock," to be sold and the proceeds devoted to working the mining claims. Nobody bought the treasury stock, and the hopeful holders of ordinary stock advanced money to further develop the ledge "petered." The disgruntled stockholders returned their stock to the company and their mining claims were re-conveyed to them. They refused to put up for assessment work and, on the ensuing January 1st the claims were relocated by "a new set of suckers," as the old locators designated their successors in interest. The office furniture and carpet was purchased by a second-hand dealer. The officers and directors resigned, and the janitor of the building consigned the books, papers and capital stock to the cremation furnace.

The corporation thought, so far as a corporation is capable of thinking, that it was dead, and—by its former stockholders—was damned. It did not disincorporate because, as its one-time president remarked in his sinfully slangy way, "Who'll be going to put up for disincorporatin'?"

It perished—seemingly—in November last for lack of nutrients. And now comes the California Secretary of State and says that it still lives. Nor loss of property, nor loss of officers, nor loss of a habitation, nor loss of stockholders, nor steel, nor poison, nothing can disturb the immortal life of a California corporation. Of old it was provided that a corporation that failed to pay its annual franchise tax might be deprived of its existence for the failure, but later and wiser legislators have provided that it may be sued and its property seized, or its stockholders pursued.

But in this case there are no officers who can be served with process. There is no corporate property to be seized. The individual stockholders ceased to be such before the second year's franchise tax was or could have been levied. If, in spite of these obstacles, it is in the power of the State to do so little to honor the memory of this really great sailor. The Times has frequently urged that memorials of a substantial character be erected in honor of Cabrillo and we trust that the attention given his fame in the San Diego pageant will result in many other and more lasting tributes.

We are glad to note that much attention will be given to reviving the name and the fame of Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, the immortal Portuguese who discovered California. It is a matter for regret that the people of the State have done so little to honor the memory of this really great sailor. The Times has frequently urged that memorials of a substantial character be erected in honor of Cabrillo and we trust that the attention given his fame in the San Diego pageant will result in many other and more lasting tributes.

We are encouraged in this hope by the fact that Californians, both native and adopted, are giving greater attention with each passing year to the perpetuation of the glorious historical memories of the State. The Native Sons of the Golden West are entitled to much credit for the work which

A Crop That Seems Assured.

"GOOD PATRIOTS."

BY DORA OLIPHANT COE.

We now may speak in the parks, you see, because good patriots all are we.

The above is respectfully submitted to the proponents of Woman Suffrage.

Not mere curiosity, but a genuine desire to know the truth actuates the following questions:

To be a "good patriot" must one be willing to tear from the blue field of Old Glory all but five of the stars of which the rest of us patriotic are proud?

The suffragists have made a flag with just five stars because they say the only States worthy to be counted are those which have given women the franchise.

To be a "good patriot" must one be willing to sing suffrage words to the dear, old patriotic melodies?

American feet have wandered into far corners of the earth and the hearts of their homesick owners have missed a beat for one suffocating second when band or voice has struck up "The Star Spangled Banner" or "My Country 'Tis of Thee." In our far island of the sun after the evening concert, when the band begins "Oh, come ye all," every head is bared and tears flow down many cheeks. I wonder if the tune would bring the same thrill if just once they should hear it wedded to suffrage words.

Perhaps to a "good patriot" it may be so, but certainly to a real patriot there is no sight so glorious as that of the flag with its full quota of stars—"as it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam." And there is more tune around and around "God Save the King" so sweetly set to our patriotic songs, anything else so surely sets heart and foot to keeping time?

Would any other nation stand for such a desecration of its national tunes and this wilful mutilation of its flag?

The solace of the situation lies in the fact that the term "good patriot" has been woefully misapplied.

THREE JOLLY ONES.

Good Character.

They are trying an Irishman, charged with a petty offense, in an Oklahoma town, when the judge asked, "Have you any one in court who will vouch for your good character?"

"Yes, your honor," quickly responded the Celt, "there's the Sheriff, there."

Whereupon the Sheriff evinced signs of great amazement.

"Your honor," declared he, "I don't even know the man."

"Yes, your honor," said the Irishman, triumphantly, "observe that I've lived in the country for over twelve years and the Sheriff doesn't know me yet! Ain't that a character for ye?"—[Housekeeping.]

After Twenty Years.

Mulcahey and Mulrooney hadn't met since they both left Ireland twenty years ago, until they chanced to meet at a reception given by the Celtic Club in New York. Although both friends had risen in the world since their departure from the Emerald Isle, time and memory had changed them not a bit.

"Mulcahey," said Mulrooney, grasping the other Irishman's hand, "the twenty years since Ol' last saw ye; and do ye remember, on that occasion we were both partly white in the middle iv a rough and tumble fight!"

"Remember it well, Mulrooney," rejoined Mulcahey, returning the handshake; "but this is no place to have it out. Come with me into th' back yard!"—[Housekeeping.]

Nervous Prostration.Police of Distant Cities Are Asked to Search.Family Keeps Constant Vigil for the Missing Man.

After an unexplained absence running into many weeks, the whereabouts of E. E. Barden of No. 406 Monterey road, have become a matter of interest to the police of three states, and his disappearance has driven his wife to the verge of nervous prostration.

Barden is a traveling salesman for the Johnson & Murphy Company of Newark, N. J., a prominent member of the First Methodist Church, South Pasadena, and a member of the South Pasadena Lodge of Masons. The last word from him by his wife was a letter he wrote on May 7 from Boise City, Idaho.

In this letter Barden spoke dismally of the dullness of trade. He complained that he was not making as much money as he thought he should. There was no hint, however, of any trouble or suggestion that he intended to desert his family.

His home life was happy. He has two sons, L. Barden, aged 10, and E. B. Barden, 18, and a daughter who is to be married. The family reside in fine houses situated in beautiful and well-kept grounds. Mr. and Mrs. Barden are well known in both South Pasadena and this city, where, in 1908, Barden conducted a hardware store in the Simpson block.

Barden has not been heard of since his disappearance, and his wife waited for his return, refusing to believe that no harm has befallen him. She believes that he is engaged in some enterprising work, in which he has invested. It is a mystery, however, what he is doing.

Barden's wife, Mrs. Barden, has been to Seattle, Portland, and San Francisco to search for him. She has not yet given up hope, and is waiting until that date is closed.

The fact that he has disappeared has been kept a close secret. The police of this city have been informed of it, but no search has been made to find him. The police of Seattle, Portland, and Boise City, to trace his movements, and when he was last seen here he was still known to the trade.

Barden is a handsome man, about 3 years old. He has a dark moustache, gray eyes, and hair slightly graying over the years. He is quick and nervous in his actions, polite and pleasant.

He was married in South Pasadena, and his wife is the daughter of Dr. John A. Wood, minister of the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Barden was born in New York. Barden is a native of New England, where he was born and spent his childhood.

In her home town, Mrs. Barden sent for her brother, Melvin E. Vood of New York, who is quietly conducting a search for the missing man.

Upon his return from his examinations at home, Mrs. Barden announced by Mr. Wood, went last week to Avalon to recuperate.

Her son, who was seen at home, was also absent, and the disappearance except of the theory that he be in a hospital, suffering from an ailment that has impaired his memory so that he cannot communicate with his mother.

"To go away utterly without noticing mother," he said, "would be entirely foreign to father's disposition. He is the best and easiest of men, and would never leave home unhangared or have met with an accident which would account for this strange absence." I am sure, though, that the little boy did not get stuck out into something that will bring in quicker results. He knows that we are going to sell our home, and return as that is done, we will be free.

Meantime, some one always is at the home on Monterey road to welcome the husband and father should he return.

Chicken Dumplings and Roast Chicken Served at the Cooking Lecture at Barker Bros.

It is a cold day when Mrs. Haffner does not give a lecture to the ladies who are members of the Barker Bros. to hear her lectures on cooking. Thursday was not a cold day, everybody knows. The lecturer reminded her hearers that the command to "earn thou thy living by the sweat of thy brow" was still in effect and that she was obeying it.

Today's lecture will begin at 2 o'clock and will be given in some of the subjects will be left to the decision of the audience present.

WARM DISHES ARE DEMONSTRATED.

Yesterday the making of bread, from its ingredients to the finished product, was shown by the cookery lady, Mrs. Haffner, at Barker Bros., and her words and movements were followed with strict attention by the highly audience present.

After Mrs. Haffner's own taste, which she described, was followed by the ladies of the South Trinity Methodist Church, as was most appropriate to a chicken dinner.

The lecture continued, again discussed and many more signed the register which has enrolled the names of those who will contest for the two valuable prizes.

The luncheon yesterday was served by the ladies of the South Trinity Methodist Church, as was most appropriate to a chicken dinner.

The lecture concluded with a discussion of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company and the Justices especially criticized were Henshaw, Loring, and Leavenworth. The attack has been particularly vicious.

The latest insinuation has been made concerning these gentlemen, who have no opportunity to reply and who must solely be judged by their judicial ability.

Today's lecture will begin at 2 o'clock and will be given in some of the subjects will be left to the decision of the audience present.

LOWEST LEVEL OF THREE YEARS IS REACHED.

Operators Regard Dullness Into Which Market Has Fallen As Natural at a Time When They Are Waiting Positive Information of Crop Prospects.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES. NEW YORK, July 14.—The lowest level of three years was reached today on the market for the entire gaso-line business since July 2, 1906. The leading operators of all kinds of distilled fuel into which the market has fallen are of the opinion that more definite indications of crop prospects are being awaited as a guide to future operations. The market is still dull, but in business. Among the operators the fertilizer stocks were most conspicuous. All of them group respecting a part of their recent losses by the appearance of a short covering. United States oil was relatively. During one hour of the morning, however, while this stock was trading in, no occurrence which had not been noted before since the stimulation of the Canadian market gained a point on the strength of the favorable report of the Canadian government. The volume during the day was throughout in commercial operations. Corporations took a loss from the total value of 100,000,000,000, but rather the extreme number of bonds steadily. Total oil stocks were unchanged on call.
